All are welcome.

Good Shepherd Sunday

The Shepherd's Voice: Scott Hahn Reflects on the Fourth Sunday of Easter (stpaulcenter.com)

Jesus, in today's Gospel, says that He is the good shepherd the prophets had promised to Israel. He is the shepherd-prince, the new David—who frees people from bondage to sin and gathers them into one flock, the Church, under a new covenant, made in His blood. His flock includes other sheep, He says, far more than the dispersed children of Israel. And He gave His Church the mission of shepherding all peoples to the Father.

In today's First Reading, we see the beginnings of that mission in the testimony of Peter, whom the Lord appointed shepherd of His Church. Peter tells Israel's leaders that the Psalm we sing today is a prophecy of their rejection and crucifixion of Christ. He tells the "builders" of Israel's temple that God has made the stone they rejected the cornerstone of a new spiritual temple, the Church.

Through the ministry of the Church, the shepherd still speaks, and forgives sins, and makes His body and blood present, that all may know Him in the breaking of the bread. It is a mission that will continue until all the world is one flock under the one shepherd.

In laying down His life and taking it up again, Jesus made it possible for us to know God as He did—as sons and daughters of the Father who loves us. As we hear in today's Epistle, He calls us His children, as He called Israel His son when He led them out of Egypt and made His covenant with them.

Today, let us listen for His voice as He speaks to us in the Scriptures, and vow again to be more faithful followers. And let us give thanks for the blessings He bestows from His altar.

Today is Good Shepherd Sunday. Let us reflect on all that our priests do for us and give thanks to God for their many acts of service and love that they share with so many. May we truly see what a gift the priesthood is and pray fervently for our priests and for vocations. Please grab a prayer card in the Gathering Space as a reminder to continue praying for priests.

First Holy Communion Prayer

My Lord Jesus Christ, I firmly believe that I am about to receive, in Holy Communion, Your Precious Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity. I believe it because you have said it, and I am ready to give my life to maintain this truth. Amen

Divine Mercy

Jesus speaking to St. Faustina:

“Is your love for your neighbor guided by My love? Do you pray for your enemies? Do you wish well to those who have, in one way or another, caused you sorrow or offended you? Know that whatever good you do to any soul, I accept it as if you had done it to Me.”

(St. Faustina's Diary 1768)

“Used with permission of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Stockbridge, MA USA.”

Divine Mercy Chaplet is prayed on Wednesdays, at 6:00 PM in the Chapel.

Holy Spirit has a new way to accept donations!

Holy Spirit now has the ability to accept stock donations from donors. Why donate stock? Here are the reasons:
Save on Taxes! Because you donate stocks directly to Holy Spirit, you will not incur any gains and thus will not incur any taxes on those gains. Applies to appreciated stocks held for over 1 year.

Itemized Deduction for Taxes

The itemized deduction is equal to the fair market value of the stock at the date of the gift.
Deduction limited to 30% of AGI

Ability to Give More

Because the gift is not taxed, Holy Spirit will receive those funds that would have normally been given to the IRS or otherwise owed by the donor.

Keep Your Cash

With a stock donation, you will not have to dip into your personal bank balance and be able to keep these funds available for everyday needs.

If this donation method sounds like something you are interested in, please call the Parish Office for more information on how to transfer stocks to Holy Spirit.
